FROM THE PRESIDENT

The PVIA board was notified that our neighbors to the North, Bear Valley Condos, may be moving forward with the removal of their boundary fence between their lot and Pinecrest Village properties. I attended their HOA board meeting and they confirmed that they have no plans to remove or work on the fence. I also requested that they open a line of communication with our board should something come up in this regard. If you have any questions about this or the fence, please feel free to contact me by phone or email. carameecker@yahoo.com.

ISLAND COMMITTEE

ARCHITECTURAL COMMITTEE

As Spring comes to the front range and surrounding areas Mother Nature is already planning her colorful display of flowers, grasses and budding trees. As Mother Nature is planning her Spring and Summer projects our residents are also planning theirs.

We think all of our residents are aware that some outdoor projects require permits. Digging in the yard without knowing where the utility and service lines are is very dangerous. Please call 811 to have your utility and service lines marked for you to allow for a safe completion of your project.

If we can assist our residents in learning if their projects need a permit we will be glad to help. Calling 811 before breaking ground on your project isn't just the smart thing to do it's the law.

We hope you will have a safe and enjoyable Spring and Summer.

IN SYMPATHY

Our condolences go out to the family of Bonnie Mihevic of 3734 S. Golden Ct., who passed away on March 20, 2018. Bonnie and her late husband have been long time residents of Pinecrest Village.

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS FOR THE AGING POPULATION

Disasters can be particularly disruptive to the daily living of older adults and their caregivers. Chronic conditions that exist prior to an emergency can be exacerbated, equipment damaged or lost, and services or treatments interrupted, causing additional harm or stress.

The Emergency Preparedness Training is interactive training to educate the Aging Population basic emergency planning skills they can share with their friends and family. The training will include family and home emergency preparedness,

DID YOU KNOW

Easter begins on Palm Sunday and culminates in weekend commemorations of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Saturday, and then Easter Sunday, and in some countries Easter Monday. Around the world, different cultures, countries, communities, and sects have their own traditions to celebrate the Easter holiday.

As Catholics and Protestants gather in churches across the globe to commemorate the resurrection of Christ, people everywhere are celebrating in their own ways by communications planning, sheltering, pet care and more! Participants will leave this event knowing what to do in an emergency.

June 28, 2018, from 9:00a -12:00p, Highlands REC Center, 2990 Osceola Street, Denver eating chocolate bunnies, going on Easter egg hunts and flying kites. Here are a few Easter traditions from around the world.

BERMUDA: Bermudians celebrate Good Friday by flying home-made kites, eating codfish cakes, and eating hot cross buns. The tradition is said to have begun when a local teacher from the British Army had difficulty explaining Christ's ascension to Heaven to his Sunday school class. He made a kite, traditionally shaped like a cross, to illustrate the Ascension. The traditional Bermuda kites are made with colorful tissue paper, long tails, wood, metal, and string.

NORWAY: Norwegians have an interesting tradition for the season known for "Easter-Crime" or Paaskekrim. At this time of year, many around the country read mystery books or watch the televised crime detective series on national television. Many families escape up to the mountains for the vacation week beginning the Friday before Palm Sunday and ending the Tuesday after Easter Monday. When spending time in a ski cabin in the mountains, a popular past time is playing Yahtzee.

EUROPE: In parts of Northwestern Europe large bonfires, called Easter Fires, are lit on Easter Sunday and Monday. While there are various explanations for the origin of the Easter Fires, the most common Saxon tale is that Easter is a time when spring becomes victorious over winter and the fires were to chase the darkness of winter away. Today, however, the meaning of the fires is simply to bring communities together. The nights are festive with heavy consumption of gin, lager, and snacks.

SWEDEN: A mainly secular holiday in the Lutheran country of Sweden, Easter is celebrated with meals of eggs, herring, and Jansson's Temptation (potato, onion and pickled sardines baked in cream). The most interesting tradition to come out of Sweden is that in the days leading up to Easter Sunday, children dress up as Easter witches, wearing old and discarded clothes, according to Sweden.se. Traveling from home to home in their neighborhoods, the children trade paintings and drawings for sweets.

HAITI: In Haiti, Holy Week is marked by colorful parades and traditional "rara" music played on bamboo trumpets, maracas, drums, even coffee cans. The holiday is a mixture of Catholic and Voodoo traditions. Voodoo believers make an annual pilgrimage to the village of Souvenance. Showing devotion to the spirits, the celebration is marked by drumming, chanting and animal sacrifices.

Easter Blessings
